

Evan Daniel Shawley

June 16, 1984 - July 11, 2024

Evan Daniel Shawley, 40, of Champion passed away unexpectedly Thursday July 11, 2024 in the Independence Frick Hospital, Mt. Pleasant. He was born June 16, 1984 in Mt. Pleasant a son of the late Edward F. and Joyce Arlene Keller Shawley. Evan was a graduate of Mt. Pleasant High School with the class of 2002. He then attended WyoTech and received his degree in automotive repair. Evan worked as a Auto Mechanic and was the owner of Tiny's Garage in Champion. In his leisure time Evan liked to go camping and boating. Evan will be sadly missed but fondly remembered by his loving wife Jessica M. Trabbold Shawley, his daughter Savanahe J. "SJ" Shawley of Champion, his brothers Edward R. Shawley and wife Karla of Champion and Eric D. Shawley and wife Rochelle of Greensburg, and several nieces and nephews.

It was Evan's wish that there be no viewing or services. If anyone feels that they would like to make a gesture of sympathy to the family, please consider donating to the family directly for Evan's daughter Savanahe's educational fund. Arrangements are under the direction of the Mark C. Brooks Funeral Home Inc., 146 Municipal Building Rd., Melcroft (724-455-2310). “ I have known Evan since he was a little blonde haired toddler and watched him grow up into one hell of a good man. He would help his friends and family with anything he could and was always there when you needed a hand. He loved his Jess and his best little buddy Savannah that he did everything with. Our hearts go out to the family and we are here if/when you need anything.
