“ Greg always took the time to ask how my family and I were doing. My wife had breast cancer a few years before Greg. There was never a time we saw each other where he did not ask how she was doing. Greg just cared about people. He taught me a lot about life on the mountain (at Seven Springs) and I will always be grateful. RIP Greg.

“ Earl Stillwagon Met Greg and Gary and the Anderson Family in 1976 when my dad's family settled back down in Hawkins Hollow during my dad 'ongoing obligation with the US Military. We where the Hawkins Hollow group, There was Greg, Eugene, Gary, Jake, and myself. We always seemed to have a pretty good time, hanging with our group. We drank at an early age and some might have thought that we where wild. Yet we respected our folks. Greg wanted a garage, so many people chipped in to help. Today the garage still stands on George Grim road. Greg worked at 7 Springs and after years of service became service Manager of 7 springs vehicles. During this time I was in the Military and had no contact with Greg, Basically with our families, Military we let our lives follow a different course, in our relationship. Seemed each was content, Greg started working at 7 springs with my brother and Joe in receiving at Springs. Greg then went for his passion and started at the Garage . Greg took over as Manager, and stayed there for many years, as a respected and trustworthy Machinic. I retired and let a religious preference, basically stop me from seeing Greg. Then about a little more then a week ago, Joe called My Brother (Eugene), and told him that Greg was not doing real good. Eugene and Joe where going up to see Greg. I went with Eugene, and met Joe already at Greg's House. It started out slow and then Greg decide to show us his restored vehicles. Amazing what this man can do with a vehicle. REST IN PIECE MY FRIEND GREG, WHAT A TRUE FRIEND. THANK YOU GREG FOR YOUR TRUE FRIENDSHIP.
