“ *My Sister Kim
My bratty little sister you used to make me mad
When you had to have your way you'd run to mom and dad
Though sometimes we would fight like most sisters do
I knew that you loved me and you knew I loved you too
When we got much older we'd laugh and reminisce
About the silly things we used to do and all the time's we missed
Like playing hide-n-seek and sliding in the snow
And we talked about the people that we used to know
You lived life to the fullest but it finally took its toll
And you fought with all your heart your body and your soul
You gave it your best shot Kim you fought with both fists
But now the fight is over and you will be truly missed
