

Megan Hess-Kalp

December 14, 1967 - March 15, 2022

Megan Hess-Kalp, of Indian Head, passed away peacefully Tuesday March 15, 2022 in the Select Care Unit in Latrobe Hospital, after a long battle with the rare disease of Calciphylaxis, at the age of 54. Megan was born December 14, 1967 in Melcroft. She worked for Saltlick Township as their Secretary/Treasurer for the last 23 years. She was heavily involved with the Saltlick Township Kids Fish Day. She also supported the Aussie Dog Rescue. She loved her pets and horse, along with all animals. She enjoyed camping, fishing, and especially her annual Gingerbread House Building with family and friends. She was a loving wife to her husband and soulmate Jack Kalp. Megan and Jack met when they were young teenagers, and fell in love and has been by each others side ever since. She will now go to be with her mother Barb Sterchak Hess and father Donald (Duck) Hess, and wait till the day comes that the love of her life joins her again.

She is also survived by her brother Donald (DJ) Hess and wife Sherry and nephew David and wife Heather, and great nephew Brandt, her brother Jamie Hess and wife Sharon and loving nephew Alex and niece Victoria. She will be missed by the rest of her extended family, her mother and father-in-law Richard and Carol Kalp, her brother and sister-in-law Jeff and Dianne Kalp, her nephew Jeffrey (Brandy) Kalp, great nieces Daphne, London, and Piper, her nephew Devin Kalp (Tabby Bryner), her great nieces Peyton and Rowan, and great nephew Easton, her brother and sister-in-law Jim and Joelleen Kalp, nieces Maddie and McKenzie, Sister-in-law and brother-in law Jodi (Kalp) and Sam Riggle, and many loving friends. All will miss her tremendously. REST IN PEACE MEGAN.

Family and friends will be received Saturday March 26, 2022 from 2:00 -6:00 PM, the hour of a Memorial Celebration of Megan's Life, in the Mark C. Brooks Funeral Home Inc., at the corner of route 711 and 146 Municipal Building Rd., Melcroft, (724-455-2310).
