“ *To the family of Nedra, I am so sorry for your loss. Nedra and I would get on facebook and talk in the evening about what was going on in Hyndman. and she would tell me about her family. but later she went off. and I never heard from her. Her sister Sandy and I were best of Friends. I will tell you's one thing this lady was a hard worker. She loved her family all of you's. She looks so much like her momma in this picture of her. Nedra ,someday we will meet in heaven. so you Rest In Peace now. LOVE TO YOU MY FRIEND.

“ Oh, Mother Ned, so many memories of you. You were always a burst of energy and fun. No one could ever be down in your presence. You just wouldn't allow it. You treated everyone like one of your own, with open arms and a big smile. You will be missed by so many, but none more than those who knew you best, your family. Your strength and spirit will live in those memories. Rest easy mother, your fight is done.

“ Aunt Ned, I'll never forget all the laughs and stories you told me while I was floating in the pool before you got sick! I nearly fell off the float. You fought the hard fight and I admire your determination but I am grateful you can rest now! I hope you're with dad and Jeff & know I'll join you all when it's my time...you will be greatly missed but heaven is a happier place now...love and miss you💔🥹💔 until we meet again❤️

“ To my sister, Nedra: We shared many good times growing up together in Hyndman, PA. My nickname for you when I was a little girl was “Noonie”. We loved dancing to American Bandstand, roller skating, sledding and playing hairstylist on each other. As adults life took us in different directions, but one thing remained the same “our love for each other.” Love you Nedra and will miss you everyday. I take comfort knowing you are home and no longer suffering. Love you, your Sister, Marsha.
