“ We met at the daily courier and became truly best friends and Robin helped me so much by getting me place live and purchase this land I live on now , over the years we didnt see eye to eye for some reason we didnt talk we where both stubborn I wish we could take that back I truly loved Robin all my heart I was blessed see her Saturday and hold her hand and say goodbye which was the hardest thing I ever had to do . Word wisdom always stay close to your friends cause tomorrow not promised ! I will forever treasure the fun times we always had from dancing playing pool parties and her making sure I was always safe when I lived here alone . Robin my dearest friend save me seat in heaven my beautiful angel 🙏
Love ❤️ you always ! !

“ I remember she would always watch my little sister and I. She was always good to us. I didn't get to say goodbye or see her before she passed away, and unfortunately, I didn't get to thank her for all she has done especially for me. So, I wanted to write this. Thank you for everything and you will be missed Aunt Bobbye, you are cherished and loved forever. ☐☐
