“ My brother Wilfred was the oldest of five children. He was 9 years older than I, so I didn't have a lot of memory of him until I was a least 6 or 7 years old. I do remember he loved to pick blackberries for mom to make pies. He also loved to hunt along with Dad, brothers, Regis, and Ray. I was not very interested in hunting, I went a few times, but it was not my thing. Every hunting season they would sit around the table with my Uncle Merle and tell stories about the Big Buck that got away. Every year it seemed to be that same story except the Big Buck was bigger LOL. I posted some pictures, one of, me and Wilfred, sitting on our porch in Davistown, and another photo of the five of us, Wilfred and Regis standing, Ray, Sharon and I holding some puppies. Have another photo of us five again at Ray's daughter Patty's wedding (I'm on the left, then Ray, Sharon, Wilfred and Regis). When Wilfred got a job in the Steel Mills in Youngstown, Ohio, his first big purchase was a 1957 Chevrolet Bel Air, turquoise and white. I'll never forget the first time I saw it, I thought it was the most beautiful thing I ever seen. I couldn't find a good picture of his actual car, but I did post a picture of another 1957 that just looked like it. That car was his pride and joy, and, occasionally, I got to ride with him when he took it to back creek to wash. Wilfred was a wonderful brother, an awesome husband, father, grandfather and friend. He also was extremely talented carpenter, furniture builder and and overall Mr. Handy Man. He will truly be missed by everyone. Love you, see you all down the road.

“ From the very beginning, 57 years ago, my father has been an incredibly strong, stable, and ever-loving parent. I have so many memories I can't even begin to summarize them here. We did many activities together, I'd help with home improvement projects – yes, I know how to mix cement, hammer a nail, re-shingle a roof and the list goes on! We fished together, went to stock car races, played catch, trained our dog Rex to fetch, washed cars, and even decorated the house for Christmas every year (Mom left that task to us!) He supported me through my many endeavors, always setting the bar higher even when I was ready to throw in the towel. I am truly heartbroken that he has left us and I will miss him all the remaining days of my life. Thank you, Dad, for being the best father ever!

“ Pappy was the best grandpa a girl could have had and more. He was my buddy with a chocolate in his drawer and hero with a hammer in his truck. I will forever keep his loving memories near to my heart. Rest in peace my wonderful Pappy, I love you.
